Agenda (draft)

Note: This specific topics and exercises included in this all-day workshop will be designed with the needs and interests of the participants in mind. The primary instructor will be Denise Denton, Coordinator of the Grant Writing Institute, but based on availability and topics selected, additional experts will provide instruction and guidance.

- 8:30 AM Welcome and Introductions
- Participant introductions
 - Overview of agenda
- Grant Application Review Exercise
- Participants will have been provided with 3 – 5 actual grant applications prior to the workshop, which they will review and score. They will participate in a grant review session to determine which of the applications should be funded and why.
- Goals and Objectives
- A focused review of goals and objectives, as well as their sub-components such as strategies, activities, outcomes, etc. Participants will be given the opportunity to practice writing and reviewing examples.
- LUNCH and Skill-Sharing
- Lunch will be provided. During lunch participants will share with one another skills and techniques, which will have been identified and assigned prior to the workshop.
- Train-the-Trainer Techniques
- Techniques for teaching the fine art of Grant Writing will be discussed. For participants not interested in this portion of the workshop, an alternate topic will be offered.
- Issue Intensives
- Based on issues and topics identified by the participants, additional lecture and opportunity to practice will be provided. This might include: team grant writing, sustainability, internal and external evaluation, and creating an outline.
